TWO CANINES ARE ARRESTED

Borough Police Watch Numerous Tramps With Care Few People in Gettysburg are bothered by Unprovoked Attacks

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 12 - Congressman LaFreniere of the District of Columbia, a member of the House of Representatives, has been arrested by the police at 3:30 a.m. this morning after he was found living in the basement of a building in the city of Washington. According to reports, the congressman had been there for several days and had been seen frequently in the area. LaFreniere is being held without bond and is scheduled to appear in court at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Two Canines Broke Jail During the Night and Under the Cover of Darkness Reached His Home in the Suburbs

A man, identified only as H. C. Lackner, was found with his two dogs in his basement early this morning. The dogs, which were both male, had escaped from the dog yard in which they were kept and had been taken to the police station. Lackner, who had been away from home for several days, is being held without bond and is scheduled to appear in court at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.

Secured Place Will Have to Be Provided for Dogs Taken Up and an Exercise Act Which Ensures Uniformity of Practice

The city of Hagerstown has passed an exercise act which ensures uniformity of practice in the city. The act specifies that all dogs must be kept in a secured place, and that owners of dogs taken up must be charged with an exercise fee. The fee is $10.00 to $100.00 as stipulated by the act.

Mrs. Sophia Elizabeth Kunkel, Wife of Delegate, Will Continue to Serve the Delegates at One of the Leading Hotels

Mrs. Sophia Elizabeth Kunkel, wife of the delegate to the 61st Congress, will continue to serve the delegates at one of the leading hotels. Carl averring that she could again secure a lot of food and other supplies. She has been working hard to ensure that the delegates have enough to eat and that they are comfortable.

Regarding the article which appears below, I am in receipt of a letter from the editor of the New York Times. He has asked if I can be present to meet the newsmen and to discuss the latest developments in the case of the split hoof hogs. I am sure that I will be able to provide useful information on the subject.

Struggling to Blow Out the Blaze

Carl was a trifle sobered at this, but he continued to struggle with the fire. He finally managed to blow out the blaze, but he was obliged to keep the baby in his arms. He thought the situation was not as serious as he had assumed.

Two Canines Broke Jail During the Night and Under the Cover of Darkness Reached His Home in the Suburbs

A man, identified only as H. C. Lackner, was found with his two dogs in his basement early this morning. The dogs, which were both male, had escaped from the dog yard in which they were kept and had been taken to the police station. Lackner, who had been away from home for several days, is being held without bond and is scheduled to appear in court at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.