

"CRAFT" GRAND JURY DISMISSED UNTIL SEPT. 19

Harrisburg, Aug. 11 (AP)—Judge Paul N. Schaeffer, making a surprise appearance in Dauphin county court, today dismissed until Monday, September 19 the grand jury which had been summoned to investigate campaign charges of political graft in the Earle administration.

Judge Schaeffer said he excused the grand jury personally at the request of Chief Justice John W. Kephart, of the state supreme court. The grand jury was dismissed until the opening of the regular term of criminal court because of Kephart's order halting rival investigation of the charges until the high court has passed upon new laws to shift the inquiry from the grand jury to a special committee of the House of Representatives.

Addressing the grand jurors, Judge Schaeffer said: "You probably know without my telling you that this investigation cannot go forward at this time. Chief Justice John W. Kephart, of the state supreme court, exercising his lawful authority, granted a rule for us to show cause why a writ of prohibition, halting the inquiry should not issue. Until this writ is determined our investigation must halt."

"Justice Kephart called me last Wednesday night and instructed me to say that Mr. Thomas (Albert L. Thomas) and Mr. Salsburg, (Abram Salsburg), counsel for the legislative investigating commission, told him they would require from three to four weeks to prepare arguments, and of course the district attorney (Carl B. Shelley, of Dauphin county) should have a reasonable time in which to answer.

"Until this period has elapsed, nothing further can be done here. Therefore, I hereby dismiss you until Monday morning, September 19."

As Judge Schaeffer acted, Governor Earle, named in the charges with 13 other Democratic state officials and party leaders, worked on what his office termed a "plain-spoken" radio address on the grand jury case to be delivered tonight at 7:15 o'clock (E.S.T.) over a state wide hookup.

Senate Committee to Study Guffey Letter Asking Contributions

Washington, Aug. 11 (AP)—The Senate campaign expenditures committee next week will "consider" letters addressed, over the signature of United States Senator Joseph F. Guffey, to "fellow Democrats" in Pennsylvania, asking for Democratic campaign contributions.

Chairman Sheppard (D-Tex) in making that announcement Wednesday, said the committee would require an itemization of all such contributions.

David L. Lawrence, Pennsylvania Democratic chairman, said in Harrisburg Wednesday the letter was "the usual request for contributions" and pointed out that it bore Guffey's signature as campaign chairman.

The Senate committee has asked Governor George H. Earle, the Democratic candidate for the Senate, to itemize his primary financial report.
