CVVFA October 16, 2004 Booster Meeting

Hagerstown, Maryland

Topics Committee:

Requested the Association send a letter of thanks to Les Adelsberger for providing transportation to Chief Gary Morris and his wife Ginger at the 103rd Convention.

CVVFA Presidents Council:

FASNY President Ed Carpenter advised the meeting will be held in Corning NY on March 12. This will be the first meeting outside original five state area. Hotel information is forthcoming.

California State Firemen's Association and Washington State Firemen's Association expressed interest in joining the CVVFA and participating in the President's Council. CSA has asked for a highway safety class.

Respondersafety.com:

Steve reported on the successful photo on the PA Turnpike. Mike Chiamonte has completed hours of work writing the curriculum for the new highway safety course saving hundreds if not thousands of dollars for the CVVFA. The course will be peer reviewed and then pilot taught by Allen Baldwin. Bob Romig will teach the first new offering in NC in January.

We are participating as a member in the National Highway Incident Management Coalition, next meeting October 27.

We are teaching and exhibiting at FDIC East in Atlantic City the last week of October all members are invited to attend and help work in the booth.

Joe Bukowski has had the financial books reviewed by the CPA firm.

CVVFA.org:

Delays in posting due to not enough spare time to write the new material. Page is up to date as of this meeting. Thanks to Steve McBee for his article on paying dues and the quotes from the Presidential Officers.

Parade results will be posted when received. The schedule of events will be filled in and corrected as necessary.
